

New York State

Public Employer Labor Relations Association Inc.

◆ NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

The New York State Public Employer
Labor Relations Association Announces
The

William L. Holcomb Award for Public Service in Labor Relations
For 2016-2017

The NYSPELRA is a voluntary professional association of labor relations management officials and advocates representing public sector state and local agencies, towns, cities, villages, counties, school districts and universities. Every year, the Association will recognize one or more labor relations or human resources officials with principal or subordinate responsibility for their jurisdiction's labor relations who have demonstrated exceptional achievement or singular public service advocating on behalf of the public employers and the citizens of New York in the field of Labor Relations.

ELIGIBILITY

- ◆ Awards may be made to one or more individuals or organizations.
- ◆ Individual awardees must be active members of the NYSPELRA.
- ◆ Organizational awardees must have at least one (1) active member of NYSPELRA.

CRITERIA

The nominee(s) must have demonstrated:

- ◆ an extraordinary achievement in the field resulting in significant efficiencies, benefits or savings to their jurisdiction;
and/or
- ◆ a record of leadership and accomplishments in the field of labor relations;
and/or
- ◆ a long term commitment to public service exhibiting innovation, creativity and positive change in the field of labor relations.

NOMINATION & SELECTION OF AWARDEES

- ◆ Nominations should be made using the attached form.
- ◆ Nominations can be made by supervisors, colleagues or members of the public who are recipients, beneficiaries or customers of the nominee's jurisdiction.
- ◆ Nominations must be received no later than June 13, 2017 by the:

NYSPELRA AWARDS COMMITTEE

C/O John J. Kalinkewicz

15 Rum Cherry Road

Ballston Spa, New York 12020

C/O John J. Kalinkewicz Secretary/Treasurer · 15 Rum Cherry Road, Ballston Spa, New York 12020 · (518) 366-2952 ·